STATEMENT OF FAITH

THE SCRIPTURES are the infallible and authoritative Word of God, without error, given for the purpose of directing man to salvation.

GOD THE FATHER is the Creator of heaven and earth and the sustainer of all things. There is but one God: infinite, eternal, and perfect in holiness, truth, and love.

THE TRIUNE GOD consists of the Father; the Son, Jesus Christ; and the Holy Spirit. They are coexistent, coeternal and coequal.

GOD THE SON, JESUS was supernaturally conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, and was without sin. He was the supreme sacrifice for the sin of all mankind through His vicarious death on the cross. He arose from the dead in His own glorified body, appeared to many, ascended into Heaven and will return to earth in power and glory. He is now the Head of His Body, the Church.

GOD THE HOLY SPIRIT convicts the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment; unites the man to Jesus Christ in faith; brings about the new birth; baptizes and dwells within the believer enabling him to grow in sanctification and righteousness, and to become God's gift to the Church. The filling of the Holy Spirit is available to all who believe in Jesus Christ, and will totally surrender their lives to the complete, perfect will of God.

MAN was created in the image and likeness of God. Through the original sin of Adam, mankind has fallen from God and become sinful in nature. He is totally incapable of returning to God in himself and is lost and without hope, apart from the salvation of Jesus Christ.

SALVATION is the gift of God through the grace and faith of Jesus Christ. There is no other name, except that of Jesus Christ, by which men may be saved. By turning from sin to repentance and trusting in Christ and His vicarious death, man is born again into eternal life by the Holy Spirit.

THE CHURCH is the Body and Bride of Christ whose task the Gospel to all men in all nations, and to make disciples of them.

THE CONSUMMATION is the act of completing and perfecting of all things through the visible and personal return of Jesus Christ into the Presence of God for eternity.

THE CODE OF HONOR PLEDGE

In signing the Code of Honor, I fully recognize that Divine Bread of Life International, Inc. was founded to, and is committed to being a Christian religious ministry that offers a lifestyle of commitment to Jesus Christ of Nazareth as personal Savior and Lord; and that it is an integral part of evangelistic and discipleship outreach. It is, therefore, my personal commitment to be a person of integrity in my attitude and in respect for what Divine Bread of Life International, Inc. is in its calling to be Christian Institution of higher learning. Therefore, it is my responsibility to understand the Code of Honor and Statement of Accreditation before signing.

- I. I PLEDGE to apply myself wholeheartedly to my intellectual pursuits and to use the full powers of my mind for the glory of God.
- II. I PLEDGE to grow in my spirit and to develop my own relationship with God.
- III. I PLEDGE to develop my body with sound health habits.
- IV. I PLEDGE to cultivate good relationships socially with others and to seek to love others as I love myself. I will not practice lying, stealing, cursing or tale bearing.
- V. I PLEDGE to keep my total body under subjection from any immoral, illegal acts or habits on or off campus. To this end, by the grace of God, I will not take any illegal drug; I will not commit illicit sexual acts; I will not practice drinking alcoholic beverages of any kind; I will not use tobacco or engage in other behaviors that is contrary to the rules and regulations of this institution.
- VI. I PLEDGE to maintain an integrity of "openness" to God's claim on my life and to do my utmost to know and follow His will for my life.
- VII. I PLEDGE to attend all classes and all required services.
- VIII. I PLEDGE to abide by the rules and regulations which may from time to time be adopted by the school administration. I understand that DBLI, Inc. is a Biblical Institute of higher learning. I, therefore, have no vested rights in the governing of the Institution. I accept my attendance at DBLI, Inc. as a privilege and not a right and that this institute reserves that right to require the withdrawal of a student at any time if, in the judgment of the President or of the Discipline Committee, such action is deemed necessary to safeguard DBLI, Inc. ideas of scholarly performance or the spiritual and moral atmosphere of this Christian Institution of higher learning. I will keep the Honor Code carefully and prayerfully. I understand that my signature below is my acceptance of the entire Code of Honor and completes a contract between me and the Divine Bread of Life International, Inc. I understand that signing the Honor of Code is a prerequisite to matriculation and that affixing my signature thereto indicates my pledge to make this Code a permanent part of my life.

STUDENT ACKNOWLEDGMENT

This document provides students with an explanation of "accreditation," "transfer of credits," and "the purpose of Divine Bread of Life International, Inc."

Webster's Dictionary defines accreditation as: to give trust or confidence to; to vouch for; to recommend; to furnish with credentials, as an envoy or ambassador. An accreditation organization is like a "watchman on the wall." Accreditation assures the student that he or she will receive good quality materials, grades and records of the courses taken, and a certificate, diploma, or degree upon completion of the program in which he or she is enrolled. Every accreditation group is not the same. There are different accrediting groups, focused in different areas of accreditation.

DBLI, Inc. is non-governmental in its accreditation and affiliation. We are accredited with the Accrediting Commission International for Schools, Colleges, and Theological Seminaries and Universities (ACI). This organization holds as its primary objective, the encouragement and maintenance of sound scholarship and the highest academic achievement in the private schools, colleges, and theological/biblical seminaries and universities. It is a non-governmental body and makes no claim to be connected with the government.

At DBLI, Inc., a degree covers the major taken with that degree. A student or potential student must understand that credits taken in one type of program may or may not transfer to another type program. For example, the credits acquired from one college, by an individual studying to become a social worker, may not be transferrable to another college that does not offer the same course of study. Accordingly, credits received from a biblical institution may or may not be transferrable to a secular institution or to another biblical, due to denominational and/or traditional differences. This means that our credits may or may not be accepted by other colleges. This is the sole determination of the receiving institution.

By signing this form, I am affirming that I have received the Catalog and I understand the type of degree for which I have applied and neither ACI, nor any other accreditation affirmation, nor Divine bread of Life International, Inc. is responsible for my employment goals.
